

Dear Assignment / News / Business Section Editor,

Hong Kong Institute of CPAs takes disciplinary action Against a certified public accountant

(HONG KONG, 24 July 2009) — On 5 May 2009, a disciplinary committee of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ordered that the name of Mr. Steven Todd Krause (membership number F01431) be removed from the register of certified public accountants permanently and that Mr. Krause shall pay to the Institute a penalty and costs of the disciplinary proceedings totalling HK$220,000, due to his failure or neglect to observe, maintain or otherwise apply professional standards issued by the Institute and being guilty of dishonourable conduct.

The Institute received information that a court order was made in December 2006 to remove Mr. Krause as the liquidator of a company due to serious dereliction of duty in the course of conducting the liquidation. After considering the information available, the Institute lodged a complaint against Mr. Krause under section 34(1A) of the Professional Accountants Ordinance.

The disciplinary committee found that Mr. Krause:

- (a) failed or neglected to observe, maintain or otherwise apply the Institute's Fundamental Principles set out in Statement 1.200 "Professional Ethics - Explanatory Foreword" and the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants; and
- (b) was guilty of dishonourable conduct.

Having taken into account the evidence and circumstances of the case, the disciplinary committee ordered that Mr. Krause:

- (1) be removed from the register of certified public accountants permanently with immediate effect;
- (2) pay a penalty of HK$50,000 to the Institute; and
- (3) pay HK$170,000 towards the costs and expenses of and incidental to the disciplinary proceedings.

- End -
