

In response to media enquiries, an ICAC spokesman today (Thursday) confirmed that five persons, including four employees of a television company, have been arrested in relation to corruption allegations.

The remaining arrestee is a director of an advertising and production company.

The management of the television company has rendered full co-operation to the ICAC during the investigation. Inquiries are continuing.